Hypermotion Technology enables the game to replicate and enhance the real-life experience and atmosphere on the pitch. In addition to enabling players to make more realistic movements, they'll also feel "just like" their real-life counterparts. This will make players feel more connected to the game and the action on the pitch, allowing them to make more natural reactions and movements." New transitions FIFA 22 offers new transitions between offside and onside, and players will have to adjust their actions accordingly. New Finishing Mechanisms FIFA 22 introduces new technical features and finishing mechanisms to the game. Pre-Match Tactical Analysis Pre-match tactical analysis will give the player an overview of the situation before they get into the game. Players will be able to review all the main factors and actions before they face the opposition. They can get hints and tips from their coaching staff on how to beat the team from the opposition. Improved Scouting FIFA 22 features improved scouting capabilities. Players will be able to identify the strength of the opposition by tracking their key players. Ball Control "Ball Control" gives players more options to attack and defend. They will be able to use any player on the ball to make a pass or kick. The goalkeeper will be able to pick up the ball and run using the new "Ball Control" tool. In-Game Coaching During in-game coaching, players can get tips on how to play the ball back to the goalkeeper, break the offside trap, transition between offense and defense and how to deal with break away situations. In-Game Artificial Intelligence "In-Game AI" will give players an increased level of challenge. They will encounter more attacking players during the game who will challenge their decision making, and add more pressure to their defense. New Goalkeeper Controls In FIFA 22, players will be able to control the goalkeeper from a new angle. This allows them to use their positioning and body shape to push the ball upfield. Players will also be able to use a "double-pump" while running with the ball and then follow-up with a shot. Balance of Power "Balance of Power" is the key to FIFA 22's new balance and way of scoring. Players will be able to use the new Force Shots tool in order to create power and control the

Fifa 22 Features Key:

- FIFA 22 introduces HyperMotion Technology. With the ability to play close to authentic authentic football matches, FIFA 22 is the more dynamic and in-depth EA SPORTS FIFA game ever released. This is thanks to the effect of 'HyperMotion' animations and player controls. The advanced player models, combined with player tracking data, are used to layer player control, move, dribble and tackle in a way never before seen in a FIFA title, creating unprecedented player authenticity.
- UEFA Champions League in-game UI and presentation. Excitement for European football is in full bloom, and it looks great. Most clubs have barcodes on their kits. Modern stadiums lighting up the stands with stadium shots, crowds attending games with flags or scarves, and the FIFA 22 commentary brings these locations to life.
- Improved sideline camera. View the action from every angle as you take a player over the counter or up the field. Whether battling your opponents, supporting a teammate or taking a corner, you're never more in the action than from the sidelines
- Alex Hunter Returns. The iconic low-def video feature returns with a breathless twist in this all-new "Full-Motion Video" style of commentary. The game engine also remembers where you stood when pausing the game in the past, so you can quickly return to the spot from which you last watched. The feature enables you to view a player's entire body language as they take a free kick, for instance, the (up to five) still images are then mixed together to create full-motion video.
- Create and manage your own stadium, name it after yourself – what could be more personal than that!
- New players: Have a look at the new leg shots, control and intelligent flight physics, with new jump height and control, as well as a new player creator and 4-3-3 formation transfer system

- bringing even more variety into FIFA 22 Ultimate Team gameplay.
 - Online stats: One of the highlights of FIFA Ultimate Team in FIFA 22 is the online stats feature. Offering new and varied information on players, stats, and competitions around the globe.
 - Lifestyle: Club World Cup, Ultimate Team concepts, Calcio italiano and National team all included.
 - Transfers and seasonal

The new FIFA Ultimate Team (FUT) features a revolutionary card collection and trading system that leads to new and diverse ways to play. Now available in FIFA 22, FUT gives you the tools to build and shape your own team of 32 players from the world's top leagues using a wide range of cards. FUT also features the addition of new user-generated content (UGC) creations including stadiums, kits, and alternate kits to customise your teams however you see fit. With the inclusion of UGC, FUT is the only way you can play as the legends of football such as Pele, Maradona and Ronaldo. With over 500 official and user-generated content cards to collect, FIFA 22 offers the biggest and deepest FUT experience yet. Gameplay in FIFA 22 has also been significantly improved. Every decision in the game now has a direct impact on your tactics and statistics. Whether it's unlocking new formations and new players, influencing the match outcome, or controlling the flow of the game, gameplay options such as use of the new Player Intelligence button allow you to affect the outcome of every match. Content Updates for FIFA 22 FIFA is packed with new content and new features to enjoy. Get ready to score goals and pull off incredible saves in five game modes that include new leagues, new nations, new Pro Clubs, new tactics, and the addition of Women's football. FIFA 22 also features an all-new soundtrack. Following the release of FIFA 17, FIFA 18, and FIFA 19, EA Sports is completely re-imagining the soundtrack for FIFA 20 and FIFA 21 with a new musical direction. The FIFA 20 soundtrack boasts a brand new, expansive collection of music that perfectly matches the new and improved gameplay. About the FIFA game: One of the largest and most popular sports franchises in the world, FIFA is an authentic sports experience that comes to life in more ways than ever with the introduction of Immersive Pro Player Kicks. Immersive Pro Player Kicks, powered by Audioburst (EA SPORTS Audioburst Technology), allows gamers to go beyond the arc and study a player's movement. Just like an NBA player would track shots in real time, players can study what their teammates do in the off-ball moments to apply an advantage when their team's in possession. By tracking a pass, run or shot and adjusting their run through Immersive Pro Player Kicks, players can notice subtle improvements and find ways to outsmart
