I am not interested in the icon associated with the file, but the icon associated with the file extension (like.pdf/.jpg/...) A: You can check whether extension contains the "." or not and get correct icons from the Image.ExtensionToIcon mappings. For.zip the mappings are: 16x16 mappings for.zip,.dat,.rfa,.iso,.img, and.ar 32x32 mappings for.dll,.exe,.psd,.dmg,.sfx, and.iso 64x64 mappings for.cab,.ndf, and.ibc 128x128 mappings for.cbr,.cbz, and.r01 256x256 mappings for.cbt,.hqx, and.z01 512x512 mappings for.yhd,.lzh, and.mz2 And you can also check that extension does not contain the ".", for example mappings for "abc.hqx" If you search for the list of mappings with the name above you will be able to use FindResource() or LoadIcon() to get the icon associated with the extension. Update To dynamically get mappings with Path.GetExtension(path) method: dynamic resources = Assembly.GetExecutingAssembly().GetManifestResourceNames(); Q: Catching a string inside a Sublime Text snippet I want to capture a string from the site: text file content: $siteName ='my-news-feed'; The following d0c515b9f4

The court on Thursday nullified the extension, issued earlier by the customs, of the lease on the containers. The lease of containers had been extended from a year to five years. The court asked the customs to amend the initial order, which would help in the smooth disbursement of funds. The petitioner, Pakistan oil Exporters Association (Poexa), had sought the extension of the lease on two containers, registered under the Export of Goods (Export of Goods Etc. etc.) Ordinance, 1979. The lease was issued on April 18, 2013. In June, 2014 the containers were seized by the customs and cash worth Rs7.3 million was seized. On May 1, 2014, an agreement was signed between the Poexa and the government regarding the sale of the seized containers.Preston Stowe Carl Preston Stowe (born January 23, 1951), better known by his professional name Preston Stowe, is an American film and television director.
