What's New In?

SpeakHaven is a free Windows utility that lets you type any text in any Windows application and have that text spoken. Simply highlight any text in the application, type your text and send it to SpeakHaven. SpeakHaven then takes care of the rest by speaking the text in the application via your Windows speaker. You can type whatever text you want, even if the application doesn't have a keyboard shortcut. Once you are done typing, hit Enter to stop speaking, or click the button to have the application respond to the text spoken. The application will only take up one KB of RAM and will be completely invisible. It supports all platforms, including Windows 8, Windows 7, Vista and XP. Note: It works only if the application is made for Windows. Read more in the feature description.
