Franchise Profile: The Saguaro Bison Grand National Ski Bowl By Mark Burrows The Saguaro is a family-owned and operated full service ski & snowboard mountain conveniently located just 25 minutes from Phoenix, and 15 minutes from Scottsdale. Owner & Management Team, Craig & Heather Ahn, are both avid skiers and have been making dreams come true for over 20 years. Bison Grand National Ski Bowl was built in 2001 with the same commitment to customer service and quality that has guaranteed other popular local resorts success. History of the Saguaro The Ahn family purchased the mountain in 2001 with the belief that the entire ski and snowboard resort was in need of a makeover. An overall rebranding that included a new logo and management team was the culmination of a vision that has since taken shape. The resort now boasts 43 lifts and offers over 1000 acres of skiing and riding opportunities throughout the season. It has hosted several major events such as the 2006 Winter X Games and the 2007 U.S. National Snowboard Championships. Come experience The Saguaro for yourself. c6a93da74d
