when luigi arrived in the basement, he encountered the ghosts of his pet toad, piri piri. together, they went down a long, creepy hallway, with luigi to find the exit. however, somewhere along the way, luigi became lost and wandered around aimlessly. soon, he found himself lost in a ghastly forest, all alone except for piri piri. he then heard something coming toward him, but when luigi turned around, he noticed that there was no one in the room. although he was being attacked by the scary looking "thing," he guessed that it was something made by professor gadd to scare away the ghosts. the floor began to shake, but then, suddenly, the room was completely dark. the room then shook again, and then luigi was flung into the darkest part of the room. he landed on a piece of rock and pulled himself up. he found a hand, which turned out to be that of a strange, naked old man. luigi wasn't frightened, however, and felt relieved to have escaped from the gloom of the room. he then noticed that the old man was still in the room, and though he was a ghost, he seemed friendly. "you're the first ghost i've met. what's your name?" asked luigi. it just so happened that luigi had learned of the name of the ghost in the mansion in his science class. he told his name to the strange old man, who immediately thanked him for rescuing him, and luigi told him his name, as well. he took a quick look at his feet to see his name painted in blood on the ground. the old man said his name was "uncle grimmly." "and what does 'grimmly' mean?" luigi asked. after some hesitation, uncle grimmly told luigi that he was a grimmy. he then told luigi that he was a grimmy, but that he had always lived deep in the forest as the chairman of the ghost secret society, and that the members were called grimmies. "but, if you're a grimmy, how can you be in this haunted mansion?" luigi asked. "i'm the grimmy of grimmy's case! i wasn't supposed to be here, so i sneaked into the mansion. when i entered the attic, i saw the mansion was suddenly struck by lightning, which created a blackout, so i went into the breaker room and turned on the power."

the dark moon, which is one of the gameplay elements, is the key plotline of the game, and when the poltergust 3000 is active and on the dark moon switch, it shows a face of mario on the moon. the dark moon, with the help of the spirits in evershade valley, allows luigi to go to other dimensions and transform into a clone of his brother mario. when in clone form, luigi can move through the dark rooms, sneak past as other enemies, climb narrow walls without falling, run faster, and even use his poltergust to suck up enemies and use them as weapons (including the super bullet). he also has the ability to "flash" whenever he is hit, allowing him to hide from his enemies before attacking, or to regenerate his hps, and he can also make clones of his enemies. there are many ghosts in the mansion that luigi can fight, including the boos from the king boo's castle, numerous types of boos from the loot trove, and the ghosts of the dimentio family, and the ghosts in the evershade valley, which includes major payne, nana, hairary toad, bellows toad, cat mom, and the giant, the villains of the first game. at one point in the game, the player will be required to save a certain amount of money. to do so, the player must blow up certain bombs on the map and collect the money. some ghosts, like paynes, collect the money and bring it into luigi's home. when luigi goes to the back of the mansion, he meets his brother mario for the first time. luigi asks mario where they should start their search, but mario says he has no idea and then gets sucked into the poltergust. luigi calms mario down and lets him see what happened, and he tells mario about the inventions the professor gave him. mario is doubtful about it, but when luigi hits the switch to turn on the inventions, mario says he'll go find mario, and luigi witnesses him being sucked into the poltergust as well. this leaves luigi to find mario by himself. later, luigi finds mario in the same room as before. luigi gives mario the first invention, but mario decides to stay with luigi. however, when luigi turns on the second invention, luigi wonders why the poltergust suddenly stops sucking in the ghosts. the poltergust begins to burst out with a bright light, sucking mario and luigi into the poltergust.
