The old version of Photo Story Deluxe has the following features: Michael Bennett responds to questions about his reaction to being called a "privileged white boy." (0:20) Boston police said they are investigating after a video surfaced on social media on Tuesday in which a man could be heard yelling at a group of people on a street corner. The video was posted by @TB_BenP, who said it was shot in South Boston, Massachusetts. A source told ESPN that the incident happened on Blackstone Street. In the video, a man is seen yelling at a group of people standing on a street corner, swearing at them and calling them the N-word. One man can be seen holding a baseball bat. Another man also walks up to the group and the man filming the video asks him why he is approaching the group. The man filming the video asks the people on the street corner if they know the man they were yelling at, as his friends stand by laughing. The man filming the video tells the group that they "need to learn how to respect other people," before telling the man who had the baseball bat to back off. The man filming the video walks back to his car, and the group is seen leaving the area. A Boston police spokesman said in a statement that they are investigating the incident and that "any individuals that may have engaged in this type of behavior will be held accountable." Bennett has been in the news over the
